Jean-Baptiste MARION's shipyard orders the building of a 16m trawler to PIRIOU

PRESS RELEASE

PIRIOU has just registered the order for a 16m trawler for Jean-Baptiste MARION's shipyard. Dedicated to scallop fishing and bottom trawling in the English Channel, its homeport will be Grandcamp-Maisy -Normandy. Built in Lorient, this new unit will be delivered in September 2019.

This trawler is the outcome of a close collaboration between Jean-Baptiste MARION's shipyard and PIRIOU which will achieve its building. To study the design and bring support on this project, PIRIOU selected the firm of architects COPREXMA for their renown know how for this type of vessel.

Vincent FAUJOUR, PIRIOU General Manager, declares: 'PIRIOU confirms through this new contract, its willingness to stay on this historical market that remains very important for the group. We have the wish to take part in the renewal of the French traditional fishing fleet. PIRIOU Lorient, located in Keroman harbour, is our site dedicated to building fishing vessels under 25m. It features adequate facilities and a strong team organized to manage efficiently cost-effective building projects while also dealing with current maintenance of vessels such as TELEMAQUE I -a trawler belonging to the shipyard of Jean-Baptiste MARION presently under maintenance.'

Jean-Baptiste MARION, Shipyard Manager says: 'I contacted PIRIOU to talk about the project and I appreciated this direct contact with highly motivated interlocutors listening to my requests. In addition, 'Telemaque I' has come several times to the shipyard of PIRIOU LORIENT for maintenance and I have always been satisfied. I found it logical and interesting to work together with PIRIOU on the building of a new trawler.'
